DEPOSITION X

Case of Nancy Ann Swinford, Wid; No. 368,878.

On this 23d day of May, 1895, at Sugar Creek Township, County of Shelby State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Louis M. Lea, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 49 years old; residence as above; P.O. address Fairland, Shelby Co., Ind., am a farmer. I don't know claimant, but knew her late husband, Wm. Swinford, the soldier. I formed his acquaintance in the service. We were comrades in Co. D, 148 Ind. Vol. Inf, from Feb. 8, 1865, date of our enlistment, until Sept. 5, 1865, date of our discharge. I was with soldier on detatched duty at Gracey's Trestle and Elk River Bridge, Tenn., during the summer of 1865, with a squad of our company under Lieut. Goodrich, doing guard and patrol duty there. I don't remember if Swinford was complaining or sick at Gracey's Trestle; but I do know he had chills and fever at Elk River Bridge, and didn't do any duty there. I had the chills there myself, and as we had no surgeon with us I hired a local civilian doctor to treat me. There was no doctor came there to see us, and I think the only medicine our sick men got was through Lieut. Goodrich, who got it at Pulaski, Tenn., I suppose, where our regimental headquarters were. Several of us were sick there; mostly with chills and fever. We came back from the Bridge early in September, 1865, to Nashville, Tenn., where we were mustered out and then came on to Indianapolis, Ind., where we were paid off and went to our homes. I think Swinford was still sick with chills when we were paid off. I don't think I saw him more than once or twice after our discharge as we lived in directly apposite directions and in different sections of Shelby County. I don't know that he complained of anything when I did meet him after discharge; but he looked pale and "peaked", and not as well as he did when he enlisted. He had the appearance of being a man of vigourous health when we entered the service. Our station was a very malarial one at Elk River Bridge and the water we had to drink was very bad. We also had bad water at Gracey's Trestle. I am not related nor interested; your questions are understood and my answers are correctly recorded. I never testified in this claim before and never was asked to do so.

DEPOSITION a

On this 5th day of March, 1896, at Orlando, County of Orange State of Florida, before me, Walter S. Ayres, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Dr. J. F. Maddox, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to ~~him~~ during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 50 years of age, practicing physician of 30 years standing, a regular graduate of Electic Medical College, Cincinnati, Ohio, and my full name and post office address is as above.

I was personally and professionally acquainted with William Swinford, and knew him from the fall of 1870 until the day of his death. I met him by reason of an examination & prescription which I gave him for chronic malaria. I had successfully treated a neighbor of Swinfords for 3d day ague, and on the neighbor's recommendation Swinford came to me for treatment. I at once advised Swinford that his case was quite different from that of his neighbor in that it had reached a chronic state. I also remember this case distinctly because Swinford was one of my first patients after my location ~~at~~ Shelby County, Ind. From the date of my first treatment as above described I treated him at intervals until his fatal sickness & death. There were periods during whic

I treated him at short intervals for several months- and according to my best recollection, there were not periods exceeding 6 months- in which I did not prescribe for him- The base of all his troubles was chronic malaria. At times his sickness would yield to treatment and temporarily I would benefit him very much, to the extent of enabling him to perform some manual labor- but the same chronic condition kept up + the same types of disease would invariably recur-. His liver was enlarged + very tender on pressure. Skin very sallow, with a decided jaundiced color. He was emaciated, but not so that he could not go about- Don't remember now that I made an analysis of his urine- This was his physical condition- with a marked periodicity- recurring every 3d day- That condition of things existed from date of my first treatment to time of death- better + worse at times. When he had a recurrence of chills he suffered with night-sweats- loss of appetite- On treatment of acids- quinine- Fowler's So- arc- acid- with podophyllin- + leptandrin- he would improve temporarily-

William Swinford died- according to the entries on my books- Nov. 22d 1875- The cause of death was chronic malaria- resulting in a congestive chill- I paid him 2 visits during his fatal sickness. My recollection is that I visited early in the morning + in the afternoon of the day of death- I was not present when he died - The pulse was feeble - circulation was also feeble - extremities cold, & he was in a comatose condition from which I could not arouse him." The statement was - from the parties with him - that his sickness first commenced with a severe rigor - and continued up to the time they got him to the house & on the bed - The surface was purplish in color, showing a decided capillary congestion. I used stimulants internally & heat externally - but did not succeed in bringing about a reaction -

I am confident that he did not have cerebro-spinal meningitis - because there was no contraction of the muscles - of the spine or any other part of the body - and I saw him after death - and he was lying in a perfectly straight & natural position without any contraction of the muscles of the spine - There was an absence of the delirium usually attendant upon such cases - I have no recollection of no pains in back of head - more than in the instance of any one having chills & fever - I do not remember that he was subject to fits of vomiting - but it is more than probable that his malarious condition produced vomiting at times.

I learned from the parties present that the soldier - just previous to his fatal sickness had been coon-hunting - The weather was raw & cold - and the ground was frozen - no rain or snow

Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this .... day of ...., 189 , and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

Special Examiner.

The length of time soldier was out - & the extent of exposure he endured on said hunt - would not have injured any healthy man - It was bad judgment for him to go - in his condition, and it probably had something to do with increasing the congestive condition - I have no recollection that soldier had diarrhoea - but he was probably taking cathartics - & made that impression upon those who observed his symptoms -

I have no recollection that soldier ever had any cough - and I am positive he had no pulmonary trouble - I have read my former affidavit & letter in this case - The discrepancy in dates occurred in this way - The affidavit was written by me during the eighties - & from force of habit writing "8" - I made the date "1880" instead of 1875 -

I have neither prejudice nor interest in this case. I am not related to the claimant - I have heard you read this deposition and my evidence has been correctly written down by you -

March 5th 1896 -

Hon. William Lochren,
Commissioner of Pensions
Washington D. C.

Sir..

I have the honor to return herewith all the papers in the above designated claim for pension, together with my report of Special Examination.

Papers to me for the evidence of Dr. J. H. Maddox - Orlando - Fla - as to nature of death-cause, and his deposition has been taken and made a part of this report - Dr. Maddox has been a resident of this city for 4 years - & the people who know him - say they have no reason to question his skill as a physician, or his reputation for truth.

In taking the Doctor's deposition I have entered into the minute details of the soldier's fatal sickness, requiring a description of all symptoms and the theory and treatment of the case, from his, Dr. Maddox, standpoint.

The theory of the case, as filed and prosecuted is, that soldier was physically sound at enlistment — contracted Malaria (chills + fever) in the service and line of duty, + that said malaria became chronic, superinducing a congestive chill which resulted in Death Nov. 22/75—

A voluminous report has already been made in the case. Many of the essential points have already been covered; indeed, if I should venture the statement, I would say that the case has been over-examined on some points. Prior soundness, a question which was not raised in the slip of reference — and which need not have been raised in the absence of adverse features on that point, has been established, doubly established, by massing together 12 depositions. Five depositions have been taken - partially with the view of showing the existence of no legal bar to marriage - and an equal number on the question of widowhood. Eight depositions have been developed to show existence of chills + fevers abt discharge. and 10 depositions will have to be made, if all the evidence is examined as to continuance. 8 depositions will also be found to have been taken on the question of existence of malaria in the service, 5 of which contain direct and material testimony. It will be noted that the examiner recommends fur. ex. as to origin and continuance.

The marriage of the claimant to soldier is established by certified copies of public records, the authenticity of which has not been disputed - and the examiner also recommends that the claim be further examined on this point.

Ellen J. McCarty and Elizabeth Hawkins swear with reasonable certainty to birth of George Thomas and Eody A. + fix dates approximately Jany 18th 1869 and Feby 18/73 respectively. By reason of the death of witnesses, the Examiner could obtain no evidence, save that of claimant as to date of birth of James M. and June 12th 1871 will have to be accepted. Frank B. Stephens swears that James M. died just after corn-planting time in 1887 and in the absence of better proof the date alleged by claimant viz. April 28th 1887 will doubtless be accepted. In my opinion the evidence above described, is sufficient to establish the points, in support of which it has been adduced. No evidence, I believe, has been developed on special examination as to dates of birth of twins William Lewis and Viola. Dr. Josiah K. Baxter and Mrs. Polly Stephens, Tampico or Tipton, Tipton Co. Ind. are cited as witnesses, and if it is thought necessary the papers can go there for said testimony.

In my opinion in view of Dr. Maddox detailed statement it is useless to take further evidence as to death-cause. Affidavit of Dr. Baxter + Mrs Stephens in Baxter's writing on file. Dates have not been seriously questioned by reviewer. + I therefore recommend claim for admission

Dear Sir. By refering to my books I find that my affidavit should reall Nov. 22/1875. I did it by force of habit, and did not discover the mistake. I see by my books that there were two visits. Nov. 22. and 23, but I recollect distinctly that he was dead when I arrived next morning and my recollection is that he did before midnight. That being the case I gave the date of 22 and they counting from 23 has caused her to get it the 3rd. Mrs. Swinford has no education and goes by memory. My dates are absalutely correct as my books all from day book to ledger correspond. If there is a woman more worthy than an other. That woman is Mrs Swinford. My Books stand today unbalanced, not because she is dishonest, but because she could not keep her children and pay the bill. I have no interest in her claim, except to benefit her. Have never received a cent for any of my trouble.

Instructions—read carefully.

The witnesses must state:

1st. Their respective ages and occupation; the length of time they have known the soldier, and in what year or years of the said period they have employed, worked with or for him, or lived in the same neighborhood with him, and how near to him.

2d. If they knew him before his enlistment what his physical condition was at that time, that he was then sound and free from disability, and especially free from the diseases for which he claims pension.

3d. If they have employed or worked with him since his return from the army, they should state where it was, and at what business, or if they have known him as neighbors only they should state about what distance from him they lived; how frequently, on an average, each week, month, or year, they saw him and conversed with him, and how intimate they were with him during this time, and from what disease or disability he has suffered during all the time they employed him, worked with him, or lived near him, and how severely; whether at any time during this period he was obliged to stop work, was confined to his bed or house, or was wholly unable to do any manual labor because of his alleged disabilities, and give dates as near as recollected when such attacks occurred, how long they lasted, and how severe they were. In this connection, if the witnesses have been his employers, or have worked with or for him, they should state about what proportion of a sound able-bodied man's work he was able to do—whether 1/4, 1/3, 1/2, 2/3, 3/4, or as the case may have been; what his actual earnings were, and whether or not the wages paid him were less in amount, and how much less on account of his inability to labor, than were paid to others physically sound, and doing the same kind of work.

They should also state how they are able to say what his disabilities have been and are now, and they should describe fully and clearly the symptoms as they appear to them in his case; in fact, describe his physical condition fully during each year of their acquaintance with him.

NOTE.—The above instructions do not apply to cases in which the affidavit is in the handwriting of the witness. In such case, the witness should state that the affidavit was written by him, and that he was not prompted thereto by any written or printed memorandum not attached as an exhibit to his testimony.

DEPOSITION C

Case of Nancy Ann Swinford, No. 368,878

On this Eighteenth day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Jerome G. DeBaun, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 45 years old; reside in Washington Tp., Shelby Co., Ind.; P.O. address Lewis Creek, Shelby Co., Ind., am a farmer. I knew claimant and knew her husband, Wm. Swinford, the decased soldier. I knew him ever since we were small boys together. We were raised within 5 or 6 miles of each other and were very intimate. I remember about the time he enlisted; don't recollect the year. We made the volunteers from our section a dance before they went off and we were all there together. He was a perfectly healthy man when he went into the army. He was always ready to fight. I never knew or heard of him being sick in any way before he enlisted. It was a considerable time after he was discharged before I saw him again. I can't say how long. After his return he told me of his back and breast hurting him. I don't believe he said anything about his having contracted chills in the army. He came to my house on the morning when he was taken with his fatal illness. He got there about 7 or 8 o'clock. Martin Cowin, who now lives in Delphi, Carroll Co., Ind., brought him there. They had been together in the woods coon-hunting. Swinford was shaking with a hard chill and was out of his head when he got to my house. I had him put to bed and put my hired hand on a horse and started him off after Dr. Maddox, to Cave Mill, about 5 miles distant. I then went after his wife and came back with her, and when we returned the Doctor was there. Swinford was then plum wild & in very bad shape. He kept hallooing "Rond, I want to go!" The Doctor said he wouldn't last until night; but he did, and died a little after dark, that night. I don't remember the date nor day of the week this was. Dr. Maddox said it was a sinking or congestive chill, and there was no hope for him. It was a cool morning when Swinford came to my house, but it wasn't raining. I never saw him with a chill on before, but he would often complain when we would meet of being troubled with fever and ague. During the last several years of his life soldier looked poor and thin. He was a great fellow for fun and good-hearted, too. Claimant has remained soldier's widow, and has had a hard row to hoe to support herself and her children since soldier's death. She has no property except perhaps a few household goods and has to labor hard for her own support. It took nearly all soldier left to pay the doctor's bill, as he had had lots of sickness. I am not related nor interested; have understood your questions and am correctly recorded.

DEPOSITION 13

On this Eighteenth day of May, 1895, at Shelby Township, County of Shelby State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared James E. Harrell, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 73 years old; residence as above; P.O. address Fenn's, Shelby Co., Ind.

I know claimant. She is my daughter and she makes her home with me here. She has no property. I knew soldier ever since he was born, and lived in the same neighborhood with him all his life except when he was absent in the army. I never knew him to be sick a day in his life before he went into the army. I remember when he enlisted in a company raised in Shelby Co., Ind. I don't remember the letter of the company or number of the regiment he joined. It was in the United States service during the late war. He was in the service about a year. He was a stout, healthy able-bodied man when he went in and when he got back he was looking bad. He then complained of having the ague. I don't know how long he had had it, or if he said he had contracted it in the service. He never had ague before he went into the army that I know of, and if he had I should have known it as he was around my house so frequently with my boys. He continued to have the ague from his discharge, every month until his death. I have frequently seen him chilling and have worked with him at such times and know he has had to quit work. He was treated for ague right along from discharge to death by a number of doctors but never derived any permanent benefit from their treatment. I was present at his death at Ronda Bond's house in Washington Township, this County, about ten years after his discharge. I don't know the cause of his death. His doctor (Maddox), told me that it was due to a sort of congestive chill. He was only sick about a day and night before he died. I don't know if there was a fever on him when he died or not. He was unconscious before his death. I was not with him when he was seized with his fatal illness or while he was chilling. I never knew him to have that kind of a chill before. The day he was taken was not a rainy day to the best of my recollection. I don't know if he had exposed himself to the weather or not. He sometimes would do so about his work, as he was ambitious, poor, and had to labor for his family. His wife, the claimant has not remarried since his death. Her children by soldier, ~~now living~~, who were under 16 years of age at his death are: George Thomas, James McClellan, Eady Adaline and William Lewis and Viola; the latter being twins. James McClellan is dead. He was somewheres near 16 years old when he died. He died after soldier did. I can't give the dates of their births. I am related as stated, but am not interested. I have understood your questions and my answers are correctly recorded.

I know claimant and have been acquainted with her since she was a child. She was raised in this neighborhood. I am her uncle. I also knew the soldier, William Swinford, her husband, ever since his early boyhood. I remember about the time he enlisted. It was toward the close of the late war. He enlisted in an Indiana infantry regiment. He was a volunteer. Before and at the time of his enlistment he was a stout hearty young man. He always had good health before he joined the army. I saw him not very long after he returned from service; a week or ten days, maybe. I don't recollect what his health was on his return. I can't say whether he was suffering with any ailment then or not. It has been so long ago & I never charged my mind about the matter. He had chills, I know, after his return, off and on; but I don't know how soon after nor how often he was attacked. These attacks hung on him for several years, and they finally ran into his last fatal attack, when he died of a congestive chill, as the doctors claimed it was. I don't remember the year of his death, but think it was sometime in the fall. Claimant has remained soldier's widow since his death. I don't think she has any property now. She raised sol=

On this nineteenth day of May, 1895, at Shelby Township, County of Shelby State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Mrs. Ellen J. McCarty, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 51 years old, and reside as above; P.O. address Fenn's, Shelby Co., Ind. I know claimant; she is my husband's niece. I have known her and her husband, Wm. Swinford, deceased, ever since my childhood. I was present when Eady Adaline, daughter of claimant and the soldier, was born. She was born about 2 months before my youngest boy was born. He was born on the 4th of April and has just passed his 22d birthday last month. I think she was born in February, along about the middle of the month. I can't give the exact date.

No, Sir; I don't think I was present when George Thomas, son of claimant and soldier was born. If I was, I have forgotten the fact. George is pretty near the same age of my daughter Maggie. He is past his 26th birthday. He was born in January, along about the 20th, I think.

Claimant and soldier were never married before they married each other. Claimant has never remarried since soldier's death. I don't remember the year he died and was not present when he died.

Yes, Sir; I suppose I have testified in this claim before, but I have no recollection of what I testified to exactly. In fact, it hardly seems to me that I ever did make an affidavit in it. No; I don't write my name, and I can't read.

(Here the affidavit of witness (B.J.17) was read to her with names of witnesses to her signature by mark, and name of the justice who swore witness was read to affiant, but she said she had no distinct recollection of the facts concerning the giving of her testimony.)

"I suppose I surely did make this sworn statement; but I am getting very forgetful.

"I might have been present when George Thomas Swinford was born; but I won't be positive.

"I don't suppose my memory of that event was very much better seven years ago, when you say that statement was made, than it is now. If Mrs. Swinford says I was there when the boy was born, I suppose she knows best.

On this 18th day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby, State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared James E. Andrews, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 59 years old; residence and P.O. at Fenn's, Shelby Co., Ind. I am acquainted with claimant, and have known her all of her life. I knew her husband, Wm. Swinford, late a soldier in Co. D., 148th Ind. Inf., now deceased and knew him all his life also; both being born and reared right in my neighborhood. I know they were married, but don't recollect what year it occurred. Neither claimant nor soldier was married before their marriage to each other. They continued to live together continuously as husband and wife from the time of their said marriage until soldier died, along in the fall of 1875, and were never divorced from each other. I knew soldier intimately for five years prior to his enlistment as aforesaid, in 1865, and know of my own knowledge that he was a man of sound bodily health when he enlisted and during each of the five years previous thereto. In fact, I don't think he ever was sick in his life before entering the service, except once when he was a small boy, when he had the flux. I saw him a few weeks after his discharge from the army and he then wasn't looking well at all, and complained of his breast hurting him. He was affected with chills and fever. I don't remember if he said he had contracted the chills in the service or not: I know he continued to suffer from this trouble, off and on, for several years, and I don't think he ever recovered entirely from this disease. I don't know what caused his death. He died very suddenly, I remember.

Claimant has remained soldier's widow since his death. She owns no property of any kind and has been obliged to work very hard to support herself and her children by soldier. She is a woman of good character and of undoubted truth and veracity.

I am not related nor interested. I have understood your questions and my answers are correctly recorded.

My age is given incorrectly by Mr. Perry, who wrote out the statement. He also made a mistake in writing that I was acquainted with the soldier. As to the date of James' death, I probably remembered it accurately at the time I made the statement, and my memory was quickened, no doubt, by recent conversation with members of claimant's family. I can say the same thing with reference to Edie Swinford's age. George Swinford was married when I made my statement. On this nineteenth day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby, State of Indiana, before me, J.P.E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared George W. Dill, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 54 years old, residence and P.O. as above; farmer. I have known claimant ever since she was a small child. I lived for years in the same neighborhood. I knew her late husband, William Swinford, the soldier, pretty near all his lifetime. He was a cousin of my wife. I know that for five years prior to his enlistment, in January, 1865, in Co. D, 148 Ind. Vol. Inf., he was a sound, hearty man. I never knew him to be sick before his enlistment. I served in the same company and regiment with him during the late war. We were enlisted together and were discharged together along about Sept. 7 or 8, 1865, at Nashville, Tenn., and were mustered out at Indianapolis, Ind., where we were paid off, about 8 days after our discharge. Soldier and I were in the same mess for awhile, until I was detailed as cook. A good part of the time I bunked with him, and I saw him nearly every day while we were in the service. Soldier began to complain of camp diarrhoea while we were stationed at Pulaski, Tenn., along in June, 1865, and this kept running on him until about the time we came home for muster out. Early in June, 1865, our company was split up into three detatchments; one, commanded by Captain Clark, who was a regular graduate doctor, went to a bridge or trestle south of Tracy trestle, between Nashville and Pulaski, Tenn., on the Chattanooga ~~n~~ Railroad. The second detatchment, in which soldier and I were, was stationed at Tracy trestle under command of Lieut. Monroe Goodrich, now of this city. The 3d detatchment was stationed at a point between ours and Nashville, and was commanded by 2d. Lieut. Langston. Capt. Clark is dead, and I don't know where Lieut. Langston resides now. Our duty was to guard the trestle against the enemy and to act as patrols and guards to the mails. We remained on this duty about 3 or 4 weeks and we then (our squad) were ordered farther south, to guard a bridge across Elk River. We stayed there until we started for Nashville to be discharged, early in September, 1865.

Comrade Swinford used to have these chills every day or so, but he was a real gritty fellow and rarely would ask to be excused from duty. He was only off duty a day or so at a time. I think he got medicine from Capt. Clark several times for his chills, and think the Captain came up from his own station twice to see him and the other [illegible] made him a tea of willow, poplar and dogwood bark and mixed it with whisky. He took this, but I can't say if it benefitted him much. He continued to chill while we remained at Tracy trestle, and still had them when we moved to our Elk River station. He still had chills at Elk River and never succeeded in getting them broken so long as we continued in the service. He had chills and fever when we were discharged at Nashville and had them when we were mustered out at Indianapolis Ind. He never went to hospital in the service and had no regular medical treatment except such as Capt. Clark gave him.

Of the men of our detatchment who got the chills and fever at Tracy trestle, I am positive that William Swinford and George Rozelle did not recover from the disease while they continued in the service. Swinford never got entirely well of his diarrhoea, either, while he was in the service. No, Sir; I can't say that the location of our camp was unhealthy. We got our drinking and cooking water from a spring branch. It seemed to be pure. We had very nice weather on Elk River; but it was very hot. At Tracy trestle we had right smart of rain, and frequently got our clothing wet. It was a rainy Spring and fore part of the summer, until along after harvest, that year. I saw soldier a day or two after he got home from the army, and continued to meet him frequently during each of the 5 or 6 years I remained in that same neighborhood where he lived, and I know he continued to have chills right along during that time, with some intermissions, when he didn't appear to be affected so much; but from my knowledge and judgement, I am convinced he never was cured of this trouble so long as I was able to observe after his discharge. I don't know what medical treatment he received for this ailment after his discharge. He usually complained to me at such times as we would meet that he couldn't "get shed" of the ague and diarrhoea. He married after he was discharged & to this claimant, and when their twins, their youngest children, were born, he was living in Tipton

(3) DEPOSITION K

Case of Nancy Ann Swinford, No. 368,878

On this 19th day of May, 1895; at ...., County of .... State of .... Geo. W. Dill, Continued, before me, ..., a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared ...., who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to h during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: Co., Ind. I saw him when I moved out there, and I heard him complain of nothing ~~then~~, in particular then, although he looked thin and yellow. I was only with him about an hour or so then, and we talked about other things. I think this wasn't very long before he moved back here to his old neighborhood and died, as I have understood, of a chill. I was living in Tipton Co., Ind. when he died.

I think soldier lived about a mile northwest of Windfall, Tipton Co., Ind., and farmed there about three years. My brother, Aaron Dill, who still lives there, was soldier's neighbor and would be likely to know of his physical condition during that period. Ed. Andrews, who lives near Windfall, and went out there from Shelby County, was another neighbor of soldier in Tipton Co., and knew him before he went there to live.

✓ Fred Hobbs, now of this city, also lived a neighbor to soldier in Tipton Co., Ind. and knew him before his removal.

I have testified in this claim before. I don't remember in detal what my testimony was then. It must have been in company with comrade Pollard McKinney, before Lee F. Wilson, an attorney of this city, now disbarred for fraud. I think I was sworn to it by his uncle, Ben. Wilson

I know he was in the office there at the time. My statement was read over to me before I signed it by mark, as I neither read nor write. I think it was written up before I was called in to sign it. I don't remember who wrote it. Wilson had several clerks in the office. One of his clerks was a Miss Neighbors, now a Mrs. Majors, of this city, and I think she was present when I signed my mark to my statement. I can't say whether Miss Neighbors signed as a witness to my mark or not. After it was read to me, I think I was asked if I could sign it, and I said I could.

Here claimant's statement (B.J. 9) was read over to him, and he said: That was not what was read over to me at all. I would not have signed my name to it if I had known it was to go that way. It is not correct as to time or place when soldier contracted chills or fever, or "malaria", and I did not live neighbors with soldier from his discharge to his death, in 1875; but only as I have told you today. I don't know that Dr. Comstock ever treated soldier in his life. As to soldier being made sick and vomiting, I never knew him to be sick but once, and that was at Tracy trestle, in the service, when he drank a lot of salt water by my advice to make him vomit, as he was feeling sick and bilious.

I am not related nor interested; have understood your questions, and my answers are correctly recorded.

DEPOSITION L

On this nineteenth day of May, 1895, at Maplewood, County of Shelby State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared John W. Smith, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 68 years old, residence as above, P.O. address Shelbyville, Shelby Co., Ind., am a carpenter. I used to know claimant several years ago; during the late war. I knew her late husband, William Swinford, who was a private in our company (D, 148 Ind. Vol. Inf.) during the war. I was first duty sergeant of our Company. I don't know that I can tell what if any disability he incurred or contracted during his service. I know that he was sick after July and last of June, 1865, when we went on guard duty along the railroad running from Nashville, Tenn., to Decatur Ala. We first went to Pulaski, Tenn., from Nashville, along early in April, 1865. We stayed there until along in June, and went to Gracy trestle, between Columbia and Pulaski ~~and the Alabama Line.~~ Tenn., where we remained until sometime along toward the last of July. Several of our detachment got sick with chills and fever, or malaria. I remember, now, that William Swinford did have the fever and ague there. I had to go down the road about 3 or 4 miles to Capt. Clark, who was in charge of another detachment of our company guarding the railroad at Tunnel Hill. He would get medicines at headquarters and I'd bring them back to our sick men. I, lots of times, there, excused Swinford from duty, as acting Orderly Sergeant, on account of his disability. Most of our men got sick at Nashville of diarrhoea, others got sick with that trouble at Pulaski, and others at Columbia, Tenn., but I can't say whether Swinford was of this number or not. After we moved from Tracy trestle to Elk River bridge along toward the latter part of July, Swinford continued to have his chills and was excused from duty several times on that account. When we got ready to return home, along about the 1st or 2d day of September, I sent Swinford to Pulaski, Tenn., on the cars to report to the Captain. He wasn't able to walk through, and I sent all the sick to Pulaski by train, and they went on by train to Nashville, where we were mustered out, and afterward went to Indianapolis, Ind., where we got our discharges. Sept. 5, 1865, we were mustered out, and Sept. 18 or 19 we were discharged. Swinford was not fully recovered when we were discharged.

I only saw him a few times after discharge, as I didn't remain in Shelby Co. Ind. I went to Switzerland and Jefferson Counties, Ind., and didn't return here until 6 years ago. When I last saw him, a week or so after our discharge, his condition was unchanged. I am not related, nor interested; your questions are understood, and my answers correctly recorded. I have not previously testified in this claim.

Case of Nancy Ann Swinford, No. 368,878.

On this 20th day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Frederick F. Hobbs, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I was 73 years old July 25, last. my residence is 71 Colescott St., Shelbyville, Shelby Co. Ind. I was a farmer when able to work. I have lived in Shelby County since 1840, something, excepting some 17 or 18 years I lived in Tipton Co., Ind., and about a year I was in the army as a drafted man during the late war. I probably knew William Swinford in this county when he was a boy, and I also was at his house in Tipton Co., Ind., about 3 miles west of Windfall, when he lived there after the war, along between 1871 and 1873. I stayed all night at his house that time and talked considerable. I don't remember that he then complained of any disability, or even that he then said he had ever been in the army. He may have told me those things, but I don't now recollect them if he did. I couldn't say what his appearance was then, as to health. I then lived 2½ or 3 miles from him, but it was entirely out of my range and I didn't meet him but once after that, when I saw him at the depot at Tipton, when his wife was starting to this county to visit her father. I was coming here by the same train, and he put claimant in my care. I didn't hear him complain then, and can't really say whether he looked to be in good health or not. I didn't have anything to draw my attention to such matters at all. I don't remember when he died and know nothing of the cause of his death, except from hearsay.

I am not related nor interested in her claim.

On this 20th day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. I knew William Swinford nearly all his lifetime. We were raised and lived in the same neighborhood until after we married He married Nancy Ann Harrell. He was my first cousin. I remember when he enlisted in Co. D., 148 Ind. Vol. Inf., in 1865. My husband and he were comrades in the same company. He was a stout, healthy man when he enlisted. I saw him the same night he got back after he was discharged. He stopped over at my father's on his way home. He was complaining then of having had a hard chill that evening and had a high fever on him. He said he had been hardly able to get about, and had got these chills in the army. He told us how long he had been sick with them in service; but I don't remember now exactly what he said. He had written home to me and the other folks from the South, and in his letters he told us about having the ague there. I corresponded with him when he was gone. I haven't any of his old letters. They were burned up years ago. Yes; I know he never had chills and fever before he went into the army. He continued to have these attacks frequently, off and on, for as long as I continued to live neighbors to him. He married before I did; very near a year before. After my marriage I didn't live very long in his neighborhood. I heard of his having the chills, though, after we moved away. My husband & I moved to Missouri and stayed there 3 years. When we returned we went to live nearly in his neighborhood, and he still had chills during the summer after our return, and he wasn't able to do much. He had a small farm, but couldn't attend it very well. I saw him once in Tipton Co., Ind., while he was living there. He said he could then only work part of the time by reason of his chills.

My husband, Geo. W. Dill, & I were living in Tipton Co., Ind. when soldier died.

Case of Nancy Swinford No. 368,878

To Nancy Swinford, Claimant:

You are hereby notified that, by order of the Commissioner of Pensions, the undersigned will, on the 20th day of May, A. D. 1895, and continuing thereafter as long as may be necessary, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby and State of Indiana, and elsewhere if necessary, conduct a special examination of the aforesaid pension claim, at which time and place all material witnesses will be heard.

And you are further notified that you have the privilege of being present, in person or by attorney, during said special examination, and of cross-examining said witnesses and of introducing any material evidence on your own behalf, if you so desire.

4 tered out Sept. 5, 1865.

I served claimant with the regular notice, which she waived, and fully advised her of her rights and privileges in the premises; but she did not desire to be present in person or by attorney during the special examination of her claim, and was not present except when James E. Harrell was examined.

She claims pension under the general law as widow of soldier, who died Nov. 22, 1875, of chronic ague contracted in the service.

Claimant is a person of good character, but unable to read or write, and, therefore, cannot state facts so precisely as a person of education. Her memory of dates is as good as the circumstances admit, and she appeared to give her statement frankly and conscientiously upon each point covered by her examination.

All of the witnesses who testified before me are credible and of good repute for truth and veracity, except Zachariah Colescott, who has reduced himself nearly to imbecility through intemperance, and whose statements, whether under oath or not, are regarded in the community where he lives as of very little worth.

I examined the family bible containing en= tries of the birth of George Thomas Swinford and the death of James McClellan Swinford, children of soldier and claimant, and am satisfied that the entries were made years ago, and probably at the time alleged.

I procured additional testimony to that already filed in this claim, relative to origin and continuance and immediate cause of death, and, viewing the entire line of evidence upon those points, I am of opinion that the claim has strong merit. *

Further examination is recommended as follows: Origin in service — George W. Ross, Tipton, Tipton Co., Ind. (Comrade).

Birth of twin children William Lewis and Viola Swinford — Dr. Josiah K. Baxter, Tampico, on Tipton, Tipton Co., Ind., and Mrs. Polly Stephens, same address.

Disabilities continuing during soldier's residence in Tipton Co., Ind. — Dr. Josiah K. Baxter, Polly Stephens and William Stephens, Tampico on Tipton, Tipton Co., Ind., and Aaron Dill, Windfall, Tipton Co., Ind., and Ed. Andrews, of same address.

Witnesses to claimant's marriage to soldier — William Stephens, Tampico on Tipton, Tipton Co., Ind., and Kipper Parrish, Kokomo, Howard Co., Ind.

Incidents of soldier's fatal illness —

* This claim was formerly in the hands of Lee F. Wilson, as attorney, who was then a Pension attorney at Shelbyville, Ind., and who was subsequently convicted in the Federal Court of fraudulent practices, and disbarred by the Pension Bureau.
I gave witnesses who had previously testified in this claim a more careful examination on this account; but could find nothing to prejudice the claim. J. P. E. Cowan, Special Examiner.

Martin Cowin, Delphi, Carroll Co., Ind.
Immediate cause of soldier's death –
Dr. J. F. Maddox, Orlando, Orange Co., Fla.
Dr. Maddox is also alleged to have treated soldier professionally from about 1870 to the date of death, and should be fully questioned as to medical treatment and nature of soldier's ailments.

I did not examine Surgeon Jesse Reagan, of Lebanon, Boone Co., Ind., James Beebe, Assistant Surgeon, Whiteland, and Private Joseph L. Mitchell, Nineveh, Johnson Co., Ind., of the list of officers and comrades, because advised by Lieut. James M. Goodrich, who commanded soldier's detatchment during the period his alleged disabilities were incurred, that none of them was likely to know anything about it. Lieut. James K. Langsdale, of this city, stated to me that he could give no information whatever in relation to soldier. I signed as one of the witnesses to affiant George W. Lazell's signature by mark as only one witness could be obtained at the time who could write.

Very respectfully,
J. P. E. Cowan,
Special Examiner.

Witnesses Albert J. Ross and Lydia A. Swinford, who testified in the original claim are dead. Tirey Edds, who testified previously as to fact of children being still living, was not examined, as his reputation is bad, and other testimony sufficient to establish the fact was procured by me.
J. P. E. Cowan,
Special Examiner.

DEPOSITION R

Case of Nancy Ann Swinford, No. 368,878.

On this 30th day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby, State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared James H. Harrell, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 48 years old; residence in Shelby Township Shelby Co., Ind., P.O. Shelbyville, Shelby Co., Ind., am a farmer. Claimant is my own sister. We were raised together. She is older than I. Her late husband, William Swinford, the soldier, was also raised right in our vicinity, and I knew him from the time he was a small boy. We used to play together, work together, and went to the same church every Sunday and Wednesday nights during our youth and young manhood. I remember when he enlisted in the Union army during the late war, but I can't state the year. It was along about the end of the war, and in the fall of the year. I never knew soldier to be sick a single day before he enlisted. He was a stout, hearty man when he enlisted, so far as I know. I saw him the next day after he got back home from the army service. He looked then like he had been sick; he was of a swarthy, yellow color. He said he had been having the ague, and he looked like it. I don't remember if he said he had contracted the ague in the service. I am positive he never had the ague before he enlisted. He worked for my father for a month after his return from the army, and during that time I saw him about every day. He had a chill about every third day during that month, and when the fever came up on him

he wasn't able to work at all, and would get delirious. After this first month I used to see him about twice a week for two or three years, and during that time he continued to suffer from ague. The spring following his discharge, I have seen his team standing idle when he was trying to plow for oats, and, hunting for him, found him lying in a fence corner, shaking with the ague.

From the time of his discharge until his death soldier lived and worked on my father's farm in Shelby Township, Shelby Co., Ind., except one summer when he was at his brother's, in Sullivan Co., Ind., and something over two years, when he was living in ~~Shelby~~ Tipton County, Ind., and during all the time he was at home here, in Shelby County, I saw him not less than twice a week until his death. He never recovered from his attacks of fever and ague, or chills. I know this from his personal appearance, and from what his wife told me and from what he himself said during the years I lived by him.

I was not present when soldier died. I was out in the yard of the residence (Jerome G. Debaun's) where he died; but didn't go in. I don't remember what was said there and then as to the cause of his death. He died rather suddenly.

I was sent for to come down where he died was the reason I was there. I testified as to Soldier's death in this claim prior to to-day. I don't now remember date of his death. If I gave this date before it was fixed up for me to sign. I think it was about ten years after he left the army before he died. I am related, but not interested. I have understood your questions, and my answers are correctly recorded.

I don't know claimant. I knew her late husband, Wm. Swinford in the army but not previous to his enlistment. We served together in Co. D., 148 Ind. Vol. Inf. We enlisted about Feb 9 or 10, 1865, and were mustered out in Sept. following. We were never very intimate in the service, and I don't know anything about his contracting any disabilities in our service. His intimates in our company were Dave Parrish, Pollard McKinney and George Ross. If you can find them they might tell if he contracted any disability or not. When our company was divided into detatchments to guard bridges &c., after we left Pulaski, Tenn., in the Spring of 1865, I went with the detatchment commanded by Lieut. Goodrich and was on duty at Gracey Trestle and afterward at Elk River. I don't remember that any of our detatchment contracted fever and ague at Gracey's trestle. There were some of our men were sick there, but I don't remember of Swinford being sick there at all. He may have been; but I don't remember. I must say the same as to our stay at Elk River, where we were guarding the rail-road. I wasn't from his neighborhood and can't be expected to recollect much about

On this 20th day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby, State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Thomas J. Thornburg, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 46 years old, residence and P.O. as above; farmer by occupation when I was able to work; am now crippled and can't follow any occupation. I know claimant and knew her late husband, the soldier William Swinford from just after their marriage in the spring of 1866 to soldier's death, about ten years afterward, I lived in their immediate neighborhood of their residence a good part of their married life, except when they lived in Tipton Co., Ind — about two years, or maybe a little longer. When I lived near them I saw soldier very frequently; almost every day or night. I was not living there when he returned from his army service, but I got personally acquainted with him soon after his marriage, when I moved into that neighborhood. When I saw him first or soon afterward, soldier was suffering from chills and a cough. He had a hollow, dry hacking cough, or something like what is called a "liver cough. He had chills every day for awhile, and then he'd have them every other day. I have frequently seen him shaking with ague. He used to come down at our house and visit, and I've seen him have them there often. The chills were always followed by high fever; but I don't remember that he ever became delirious. I have heard him say, lots of times, that he got his chills in the army service. I don't remember what medical treatment he had for his ague, but have seen him take Chinoidine, a patent medicine, for it. These chills continued to affect him so long as I knew him. Sometimes they would miss a little while; but would always come back on him. During each year of the period I knew him, he couldn't work more than one-fourth of his time at manual labor in consequence of his chills and fever. This is a fair estimate according to the best of my judgment. I was not present at his death, and have no personal knowledge of the immediate cause. I heard right away that he was dead. He had a chill, I understand; but he had been having them right along. I don't know what killed him.

I am not related, nor interested. I have understood your questions and my answers are properly recorded.

DEPOSITION A

On, this Eighteenth day of May, 1895, at Shelby Township, County of Shelby, State of Indiana, before me, J. T. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Mrs. Nancy Swinford, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 49 years old, reside as above; P.O. address, Fenn's Shelby Co., Ind.; occupation housewife. I am the widow of William Swinford, who served in Co. D, 148 Ind. Inf. during the late war, as a private. He enlisted, I think, in 1865, for one year and was mustered out when the war closed, the following fall. I don't have his discharge papers and can't give the precise dates. He died on Nov. 22, 1875, at Round Pond's, house in Washington Tp., Shelby Co., Ind., about two miles south of where I now reside. He died with a congestive chill. He was never in the military or naval service of the United States before or after his service above given. I was married to soldier on May 24, 1866, at Shelbyville, Shelby Co., Ind., by a man named Miller, a magistrate; I don't remember his first name. A copy of my marriage certificate is on file with the papers in my claim, taken from the county records. Polly Stevens, William Stevens, John Harrell, and Kipper Parish were present and witnessed our marriage. Polly and William Stevens live in Tipton Co., Ind., now; John Harrell lives in Hendricks Township, this county, and Kipper Parish lives in Kokomo, Howard Co., Ind. My full name at the time of my marriage to soldier was Nancy Ann Harrell. I have not remarried since soldier's death. I have not lived or cohabited with any man since the soldier's death. I was never married before my marriage to the soldier, nor was he ever married before he married me.

I had the following children by the soldier, who were under 16 years of age at the time of his death:
George Thomas Swinford, born Jan. 18, 1869
James McClellan Swinford, born June 12, 1871
Eady Adaline Swinford, born Feb. 18, 1873
William Lewis }
Viola } Swinford, twins, born Dec. 7, 1874.

My first born child was John, born on Feb. 25, following my marriage, and he died before George Thomas was born. George Thomas was born lacking only from the 18th day of January to the 25th day of February of being two years from the time John was born. An entry of George Thomas' birth was made in our family bible by uncle Mat Swinford, when George was little. No entry of the birth of any of the other children was made, and the only way I can calculate their births is by counting back from George Thomas' birth. I don't remember the date of John's death.

Dr. Comstock was present when George Thomas was born, but he is dead. Ellen McCarty was also present then. All who were present when James McClellan was born are dead. Dr. Comstock, Elizabeth Hockins and Ellen J. McCarty were present when Eady Adaline was born, and I forgot to state that Elizabeth Hockins was also present when George Thomas was born.

Dr. Josiah K. Baxter, now of Tipton, Tipton Co., Ind., was present when the twins were born, and Mrs. Polly Stevens, now of Tipton, Tipton Co., Ind., was also present. Of the children named James McClellan is dead. He died April 28, 1887, after soldier's death, and this date is recorded in our family bible by one of my daughters. The others are all living. I had the care and custody of George Thomas until he was nearly 17 years of age, and of James McClellan until his death, and of Eady Adaline until her marriage to Albert Amear. She now lives in Madison Co., Ind., and was 20 years old when she married. Viola was in my care and custody until her marriage, at not quite 20 years of age, to Joseph Hartsell. She lives in this Township, about a mile from my house. I had the care and custody of William Lewis until he was past 17 years old. He now lives at Anderson, Madison Co., Ind. George Thomas' address is also Anderson, Madison Co., Ind. Elizabeth Hockins and Ellen J. McCarty, I referred to as being present at birth of children, both reside in this Township and their P.O. address is Fenn's, Shelby Co., Ind. There is no public record of births or deaths of any of my children by the soldier. The soldier left no other children under the age of 16 years at the time of his death, other than those whose names I have given you.

I had known the soldier ever since my earliest childhood. We were born and raised within 2½ miles of each other. Soldier was never sick, to my knowledge, at any time before he enlisted in the army, and was a stout, health, able-bodied man when he entered the service. He had always lived right here in this Township during his life. No, Sir; he never had chills before he went into the service that I know or ever heard of. ✓James Ed. Andrews, ✓James McCarty and ✓John Stevens were close neighbors of the soldier for five years prior to his enlistment, and can testify as to his soundness during that period. These live in this neighborhood and their P.O. is Fenn's, Shelby Co., Ind. I don't know anything about his disabilities in the army or of their origin in the service, only from what he told me after his discharge. He didn't return home on furlough or sick leave while he was in the service. I don't know who were his company officers except ✓Lieut. Monroe Goodrich, who lives in Shelbyville, Shelby Co., Ind. ✓George W. Dill, and Pollard McKinney also of Shelbyville, are the only ones of soldier's messmates in service I know of who are living. There may be others who can be found. Soldier came directly home after his discharge. He got back either on a Friday or Saturday and I saw him on the Sunday following. He didn't look very well. He was tolerably thin in flesh and had a swarthy color. He was complaining of pains in the back of his head and neck. We went to the county fair the week following his return from service, and he had a hard chill there. I saw him shaking. I don't remember if he told me then that he had got the chills in the army or not. I suppose he did. He never had them before he went in but certainly had when he got back home. We were married the Spring following his return from the army. During our courtship I saw him, some weeks, as often as two or three times a week, and some weeks not so often; on an average I saw him every week. He at first had chills every day; then every other day and then every third day, during this period. After our marriage his chills continued but sometimes he would get them broken for a little while, then they would come back on him again. I don't remember that he ever complained of his stomach, or liver or spleen; he mostly spoke of pains in the back of his neck. I never knew of his receiving any injury or having any sprain or accident after his discharge that would have produced the pain in the back of his neck. His first medical treatment was by Dr. John Perry, now dead, before our marriage; then Dr. Comstock took his case for several years. Dr. Comstock is dead. Soldier didn't doctor with one doctor exclusively but tried one and another, turn about. Dr. Maddox was soldier's next physician. He treated soldier for several years up to the time he died. Dr. Maddox now lives somewhere in Florida, where he went about 2 years ago. Dr. Comstock treated soldier, I think, from the time of his discharge until along in 1870. Dr. Perry only doctored soldier until shortly after our first child died, and then Comstock became our family doctor, although Comstock had previously given soldier medicine for his chills. Dr. Maddox treated soldier from 1870, or along there, until he died. I don't know what medicines they gave him

Orlando, Fla.

Dr. Comstock claimed that soldier would never be cured of his ague. I don't know what reason he gave for saying so. I know soldier was never free from attacks of ague or chills as long as six months or even four months. He was sometimes free of it for about one month. He used to have high fever following his chill and sometimes would become out of his head. He was a farmer. He was disabled from work whenever his fever came on. I have seen him working when he had a chill on him; but he'd have to lie by when the hot stage came on. He frequently would get sick at his stomach when the fever was on him and vomit bile. He was tolerably poor in flesh, pale skin, and the veins of his eyes were red. After a few years, he began to have night sweats and these weakened him very much. He had been gathering corn and had most of it gathered before he was taken with the chill that carried him off. He had done some work the same week he died. His fatal sickness only lasted a day and a night He was taken with a chill while down at ~~our barn~~ Ronda Bond's house, about ~~a~~ ~~mile~~ two miles from where we lived then. When I got there he didn't know me at all and never spoke before he died but one word. He had a fever on him then, and he acted to me like he always had when he'd have other attacks of chills, and I never knew different until Dr. Maddox came and said it was going into congestion and he couldn't recover. After I got where he was I don't think he lived over three hours. He tossed about a good deal. He asked me who I was, when I went to give him his medicine. This was all he said plainly. The doctor came soon after I got there. Doctor Maddox went home before soldier died. There were present when soldier died, Ronda Bond, James E. Harrell, Mary Bond, Kipper Parrish, and some others whose names I don't recollect distinctly. He was dead at 8 o'clock at night, and was buried the next day. Soldier never had any other disability than chills and fever during our married life, except a ~~two~~ week's illness with intermittent fever when Eady was a baby. He recovered from this, so he got up and around again. No, Sir; he never had cerebro-spinal meningitis, or "spotted fever". He used to complain a good deal of weakness and pain in the small of his back. I don't know whether his kidneys were affected or not. He'd have a good appetite whenever he would get over his ague. I don't think he was ever, during any year of our married life, able to make a full hand at manual labor.

Soldier never applied for a pension. He often talked of doing so, but kept putting it off until he died. I never applied but this once for pension. My claim is under the general law.

I have no witnesses save those whose names I have given you in the course of this statement whom I desire to have you examine during the special examination of my claim, and what they are expected to testify to is sufficiently evident. I do not desire to be present in person or by attorney during this special examination. I am interested. I have understood your questions, and my answers are correctly recorded.

Here claimant's statement, (B. J. 19) was read over to him; he identified his signature, and said:

"Yes, Sir; I signed that affidavit; but my age is not correctly given by the person who swore me to the statement. Yes; the date of the death of claimant's child James M., is probably correct. It occurred along about the time specified in that affidavit. George T. Swinford, the oldest son, living, of claimant and soldier, is married. As to Eadie's age I don't now remember it. The affidavit was not written in my presence, and I think it was not read over to me before I signed it. My best recollection is that Miss Perry, of Shelbyville swore me to the affidavit; but I don't know if she affixed a seal to it or not.

Frank B. Stephens was with me; signed the affidavit at the same time and was sworn to it at the same time with me.

Case of Nancy Ann Swinford, No. 368,878

On this 21st day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby, State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Zachariah Colescott, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 48 years old, residence and P.O. as above, and am a plasterer. I don't know the claimant. I knew her late husband Wm. Swinford, the soldier, some 4 or 5 years prior to his enlistment in Co. D., 148 Ind. Vol. Inf. His health was good during the period named. We enlisted in the above service in February, 1865, at the same time, and were discharged in Sept. following, together. I think he was sick in the service. I don't remember what ailed him. I was with the company in the Spring of 1865, at Pulaski, Tenn., when the company was divided into squads and sent out on the Nashville and Stevenson, Ala., railroad to guard bridges and trestles. My first station on this service was at Gracey's Trestle, 15 miles from Pulaski, Tenn., and we stayed there until along about the latter part of July, 1865, and then went to Elk River, to guard the bridge there. We stayed at Elk River until we started home, and stopped a week at Nashville for muster-out, and got our discharges later, at Indianapolis, Ind. Yes; I think several of our company were sick with diarrhoea at Pulaski, before we moved to Gracey's Trestle; I had it myself. No;

Sir; I don't remember if Wm. Swinford had the diarrhoea there or not. No; Sir, I don't remember of any of our squad being sick at Gracey's Trestle with chills and fever, nor that Swinford was thus sick there. I don't remember that he was excused from duty at Elk River bridge on account of sickness with chills and fever. I don't remember of his ever being sick with diarrhoea or chills and fever at any time during service. I think when he was discharged his health was good. I don't remember hearing him complain of anything then. I was not a bunkmate or messmate of Swinford's at any time in service. At Gracey's Trestle there were 32 of our company, and at Elk River we had 28 men. Four of those we had at Gracey's went with Capt. Clarks squad, as he had enlisted them. I used to do Swinford's correspondence for him, and was on good terms with him all through the service and afterward until his death. I didnt see him often after discharge. When I did see him after the war he never complained of illness and yet he didn't look as well as he'd been looking before he went into the service. I am not related nor interested; your questions are understood, and my answers correctly recorded. I never testified in this claim before.

DEPOSITION W

Case of Nancy Ann Swinford Wid's, No. 368,878

On this 22d day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby, State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Pollard McKenney, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 57 years old; residence & P.O. address as above; am a farmer. I know claimant and have been acquainted with her since she was a little girl. I used to live in the same neighborhood where she was born and raised, in Shelby Tp., this county. I also knew William Swinford, her late husband, the soldier and knew him intimately from his early boyhood up to the time of his death. We were comrades in the service during the late war, in Co. D., 148 Ind. Vol. Inf., and, for part of the time, we were messmates and bunkmates. We enlisted together in January, 1865, and were mustered out together in Sept. 1865. At and for five years prior to his enlistment he was as stout and healthy as anybody I ever saw. I never knew him to be sick a day before he entered the service. We played together and went to school together as boys, and I know what I state as to his health. The first I ever heard him complain in the service at all, was while a detatchment of 28 men of our company was stationed at Gracey's Trestle, Tenn., guarding a railroad trestle there. This was in the latter part of the summer of 1865. There were several of our men were sick at that time. I remember that I, and Swinford and Thos. Ammerman (now dead) and Thomas Ford were sick at the time, and when we were afterward moved to Elk River Bridge, to guard the bridge there, we were all put into an ambulance because we were unfit to march. What Swinford's trouble at Gracey's Trestle was I don't now remember. He had chills and fever at Elk River bridge and was excused from duty, I know. My recollection is that he was sick all the time we stayed there at Elk River with chills. When we left there to go to Nashville to be mustered out, Swinford went to Pulaski, Tenn., either by train or ambulance and didn't march through with the well members of the company. I remember this because he carried a pet 'coon of mine through for me. I think he was sick all through the rest of the time we were in service and for a long time after we were discharged and had got back home. This was chills and fever of which he complained. He had a sallow, yellow, bilious color, and didn't look like himself at all when he was discharged. That was a remark made by several of the boys after he got home. I saw him frequently after discharge until his death, each year that he lived in our old neighborhood, and he never recovered his health but continued to have attacks of chills and fever up to the time of his death, which I believe was caused by a chill. Nearly all of us had diarrhoea down in Tennessee, but I can't say if soldier had it or if it continued on him after his discharge. I testified in this claim before, to substantially the same facts as now.

I am not related, nor interested. I have understood your questions and my answers are correctly recorded

On this 20th day of May, 1895, at Shelbyville, County of Shelby, State of Indiana, before me, J. P. E. Cowan, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared John H. Butler, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 41 years old, residence Shelby Tp. Shelby Co., Ind., P.O. address Fenn's, Shelby Co., Ind., am a farmer. I have known claimant ever since I could recollect anything, and I knew her late husband Wm. Swinford, the soldier, well, from my earliest boyhood. I was raised in their immediate neighborhood. I remember distinctly when he enlisted in the Union army during the late war, and would have been with him if I had been old enough. He had good health prior to his enlistment and I never knew him to be sick before that time. He enlisted during the last year of the war; but I can't state precisely when it was.

It wasn't over 3 or 4 days after he was discharged from the service and had returned home before I met and talked with him. He hadn't been gone in the army quite a year, and it was in the fall when he returned. I was ~~then~~ about 12 years old then. He then looked tolerably well, except that he was rather pale. He complained of his head and breast hurting him and complained of having ague, accompanied with fever and headaches. I saw him have a chill not very long after he got home. I've seen him have many a one. He lived there for several years and I saw him every week. When I was about 17 years old he went to Sullivan Co., Ind., and I [illegible] summer, returning to Shelby County, Ind., that same fall. I worked with him on the same farm that summer, and we were together every day. He had fever and ague, sometimes every day; sometimes every other day, and then he'd miss a day or two, when it would come back on him again. He'd have high fever following these chills and then hard sweats. He was considerably reduced in strength and was not able to do very much work. He had a power of nerve, and wouldn't give up until he just had to. He had no doctor to come to see him. I think he took some kind of patent medicine, but I don't know what it was. Whatever it was, it didn't seem to do him a bit of good. I started back with him to Shelby Co., but got erysipelas in my foot & came on through by train, while he came through with his horse by road. After we both got back here, I worked in the same neighborhood. When he afterward went to Tipton Co., Ind., I went with him and lived there, most of the time while he stayed there, in his family. I think he stayed there going on three years. He was weaker then than he had ever been before, and his condition was caused by fever and ague, which he had, generally, every other day. I think he went often while there to see a Dr. Baxter, who lived in Tampico, that county, and got medicines of him; but these didn't benefit him a particle. I accompanied him on his return to Shelby Co. Ind. from Tipton County and lived near him until he died, except the summer following our return, when I returned to Tipton County. I was making my home with him when he died. During all this time his health and strength were going down steadily, and he continued to have his old attacks of chills and fever. I didn't see him die.

I am not related nor interested; your questions are understood, and my answers correctly recorded. I have not testified in this claim before today.

When he enlisted in Feb. 1865, he was the strongest man, physically, in our company. His life as a farmer and woodsman had inured him to such exposure and hardships of the service as we encountered beyond any man I know in our company. We used to call him "Wild Bill." He was tough as a pine knot; always jovial and full of life, having rugged health and a love for the service. He was the last man in the company to complain. I've seen him often carrying two knapsacks on the march; his own, and the other belonging to some sick comrade.

Our company was divided into three squads at Pulaski, Tenn., in the Spring of 1865 and sent out south on the Tenn. and Ala. When he enlisted in Feb. 1862, he was the strongest man physically in our company. His life in [illegible] and environment had inured him to hardships and [illegible] the service as we [illegible]. He used only [illegible] as one company. We used to call him "Old Stub". He was [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] a [illegible] for [illegible]. He was the best man in the company in [illegible]. We used him often [illegible] [illegible] in the [illegible] the army had [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

Our company was detailed with three [illegible] at [illegible] by the [illegible] and [illegible] on the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] the line. We, that is, the detachment of Company A, and in which the [illegible] claimant was, went [illegible] about 20 miles south of [illegible] [illegible] and remained there until some time in July, when we were ordered to the Elk River Bridge, farther South, near the Alabama line, and remained there until I took my men back to Nashville, Tenn., for final discharge from service, in Sept., 1865. While we were at Gracey's Trestle a number of our men were taken down with chills and fever. That situation was full of malaria, being surrounded by swamps. Our men were also troubled with diarrhoea there. I remember Swinford was of the number who had chills and fever there. I sent to Nashville several times and procured quinine ~~several times~~ at my own expense and gave it to them. After we got to Elk River Swinford was so bad with chills that he was excused from picket duty; he grew sallow and thin, and lost all his exuberant spirits. He never was well any more during our service, nor after he came home, after his discharge. I saw him frequently every year after discharge up to the time of his death, I think in 1875 or 1876, except a few years when he lived over in Tipton Co., Ind., and I know from what he told me and from my own personal observation that he never recovered from the chills or malaria he contracted down on that railroad in Tennessee. I don't know the cause of his death. I think he died of a congestive chill. I think I heard he died in that way. He became a wreck in the army; came home a wreck of his former self, and never regained either

DEPOSITION U

Case of Nancy Ann Swinford, No. 368,878.

On this Jas. M. Goodrich Cont'd day of ______, 189 , at ______, County of ______ State of ______ before me, ______, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared ______, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to h during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: his strength or natural vivacity. Of the medical officers of our regiment, I don't think Dr. Jesse Reagan or Dr. James Beebe would be apt to know anything of soldier's disabilities in service, as neither of them were with us after we left Pulaski, Tenn., and as my sick men were either prescribed for by Capt. Clark, of our company, who was a regular physician, or by myself. Joseph L. Mitchell, you mention, a private of our company, was not with my detatchment; he was with Capt. Clark's, and would not probably know anything about soldier's disabilities. Pollard McKinney and Geo. W. Dill and Serg't John W. Smith and Geo. W. Ross, of Tipton were with us, and were intimate associates of Swinford and ought to know all about his ailments in service. McKinney and Dill live in this city; Serg't Smith lives in a suburb here, and Ross, if he is still living, is residing in Tipton Co, Ind.

Yes, Sir; I have previously testified in this claim, but I don't remember the exact nature of my testimony. (Here affiant was shown his affidavit, B.J.C, and identified his signature as genuine, and said:)

Yes; I remember making that affidavit, and every word of it is true. Swinford must have contracted the fever and chills there at Gracey's Trestle, and got down with it while we were at Elk River Bridge, and the symptoms of his illness were sickness at the stomach, as is customary in malarial attacks such as his was.

I am not related nor interested; your questions are understood and my answers correctly recorded.

Gracys Trestle Tenn

The Letters of

Jacob Sigmund
1st Lt., Company E
7th Pennsylvania Cavalry

Written to family and friends in Clinton County, Pennsylvania

Lt. Sigmund was killed in action, April 2, 1865 at Selma, Alabama

(Submitted by Sue Renkert)

Lynnville Station, Tenn
June 10th 1864

Dear Brother,

Your welcome letter of recent date is received. I was glad to hear from you again. I will try & drop you a few lines this morning although I must confess I don't know much news. You will see by the heading of this letter that I have left Buford Bridge. I left there on the 1st of this month to take charge of Co. E, 7th Pa. V. V. Cavalry & a great company it is. Company E is composed of 139 men of all grades & sizes of every co. in the Regt. Well in fact it is the shisers (?) of the Regt. True I have a good many good men but the majority of them are cripples, convalescense & c. Some are mounted & some isn't, I will try & classify them as well as I can. 23 of them are mounted & armed with Spencer Carbines. They are used for scouts & c. 34 of them are at Gracys Trestle guarding the trestle work. 11 of them belong to the band. Perhaps you were not aware of us having a band. But we have, at least that what the call it. They received there horns a few weeks ago. They have no arms. Then I have some 70 convalescents, cripples & c. They did not get any arms as yet. So you perceived I got quite a mixture. But I guess we can get along at least we will try. I have to drill my veterans mornings & evenings when not otherwise engaged. I suppose you heard of the attack on the Rail Road some time since. They was to work tearing up the track when the patrol came along. The Patrol fired at them when they fired a volley at the patrol at least 80 shots. There being only two of them they fell back & reported to me at the Block House. I immediately sent 8 men up to meet them but they had skedaddled before they got there. They did not do much damage.

I forgot to mention that one of our men wounded, shot in back. But I am happy to say not dangerous. he is getting better fast. His name is Robinson. We had a scare the other night. I was ordered up the Rail Road with 28 men to clear the road of bushwhackers who where reported on the road but did not meet any. Day before yesterday Maj. got a dispatch from Gen Strakweather from Pulaski that the enemy was about in ___. The Maj. immediately ordered me out with some of the mounted men to scout the county to learn whether I could get any information of them. We returned about 9 o'clock but did not hear anything of them. We was ordered to stand picket that night in Lynnville. Did not learn anything of them. We could hear artillery fire a great ways off but did not learn where or what they was firing at. We are still looking for them to attack, whether they will make there appearance or not, time will tell.

Dont know anything from the company or Regt. Suppose you do. Weather cloudy & raining today. Mcclinton, Kahler, Paul Walker, Smith Briehart & Sam Miller are here & well. Rishel is at hospital in Columbia. Cherries are ripe. Also strawberries. Harvest will be here in about 2 weeks. My horse is played out. Glad to hear you got home safe. Did not get paid yet. Don't know when we will. Some hard fighting in Tn & Georgia but suppose you know more about it than I do. Hura for Lincoln & Johnson. Can't think of anything so I'll go.

Jake Sigmund

Dont forget to write.

Lynnville Station, Tenn.

David B. Drape, Esq., Sir,

I will endeavor to drop you a few lines again to let you know my whereabouts. I have written to once B4 but did not get any answer as yet, but suppose it not your fault for I have written good many letters & received but few as yet. But they are beginning to come now. I suppose the most of my letter were forwarded to the Regt. You will perceive I have been changing about right smart since I left home __ is just 2 month to day. I left the Regt. at Columbia as you are aware on the 26th of April for Lynnville to report to Maj. Col. Davis for duty. It went pretty hard for me to leave the Co. & Regt but you know we are bound to obey orders. I was in with the company long enough to get rightly acquainted with the new recruits. But so it goes. I was at Lynnville just one week when I was ordered to Buford Bridge to take command of the detachment stationed there. I was there nearly a month when I was ordered to report to Head Quarters to take command of what they call Co. R. Company R is comprised of the assigned recruits & veterans of the Regt., that is they belong to the different companys. I have men of all the Cos. of the Regt. 8 men of Co. E among the number, as follows; Perry McClinton, Geo W. Smith, Henry Paul, Henry Kahler, H. W. Brilhart, Cyrus Walker, Thomas Miller (the fellow that used to work at Sam Willy) & Harry Rishel. The latter is in hospital at Columbia. How he is getting I know not. The rest of them are well. They we have company R & co. O unassigned recruits. They are new recruits that have not been assigned to the companys. Then there is Co. N & D (?) the former is at Columbia & the latter at Culleaka. Co. N is the company __. Recruit are in Segt. S. B. Darrah & Corp. Wasson are in that company. They are at Columbia. I have not see them since I left the regiment but hear from them once & awhile. I believe they are getting along fine. I have not heard anything reliable from the regt. lately. There a good many reports but how true I can't say. I guess it's certain they got into a pretty hard fight near Atlanta & a good many killed & wounded, but I did not learn many names except a few; Sergt. Geo. B. Her of Co. K wounded in head. Sergt Major Watts wounded & a few others is all the names I could learn. I see you have a report at home that Capt. Schaeffer wounded. They don't know anything of it here. But for all that it may be so, for I suppose Co. E suffered with the rest as they would be put to take the advance. I hope they may come out all right. I should like to be along & share with them the danger & fatigue of the campaign. I don't there is much difference n the danger between there & here. I know any thing you can go to bed & sleep there ___ not being routed nearly every night to go after bushwhacker. I have been ordered out twice this week with a scout to go after bushwackers. They are still about. They stole 2 horses last night again from one of our scouts. They made attack on the railroad some time since. I suppose you heard of it. Wounded one of my men in back. But happy to say not dangerous. He is getting better fast. Will soon be able to try them again.

Weather has been quite juicy for the last week or more. My health has got right good again. The cherries & strawberries are ripe her. harvest will soon be on hand. This is a very fine country. The cars has not been running for the past 2 days on this road. There was a bridge broke down near Chattanooga, broke with freight train. Cars smashed badly. But no body hurt. They have commenced running again this morning. There was some trains just passed up the road. I heard Col. Sipes of our regt. went up sick. I did not see him but heard so. He said there was only 4 of our regt. killed & 8 wounded. I did not learn who. But that they had lossed about half their horses. They had been fighting in front when the rebs took there horses. How true I know no. Suppose I will find out when the Major get back & I will let you know all about it, but for the present enough

Dear Sister Sallie,

It is a long time since I wrote to you, why I don't know. It is not because I don't think of you for there is not a day passed but what I think of you & of the time we used to have when we was at the mountain home together. Those were time long to be remembered by me. But things have changed since that. I received your welcome letter a few days before. I left Gracy's Trestle & would have answered it before this time but we was ordered away & since that I had no chance of writing. I am glad to hear that your health has got so good again. I don't know as I will be able to tell you any news but still I will do the best I can. My health still continues good.

We left Gracy's Trestle this day a week ago, took the cars for Columbia & from there we had to foot out to camp about 2 miles from town. On the next day, Monday I went to town to see Lt. Nixon. He is not very well, but I am happy to say he is getting better. I also saw several others of Co. E boys. Wm. Shaffer from Clintonville & a few others. On Wednesday morning received orders to take 48 men & go up the Rail Road to No. 9 & 10 Block House & relieve the Second Mich. Cavalry stationed there. They had no orders to leave so we was both there till Friday when they received orders to report to Franklin. So we did not get fixed up till yesterday. I have my Hd. Quarters at No. 10 Block House which is about 4 mile from Columiba toward Nashville. So you percieve I am still falling back. From Buford Bridge to Lynnville Station from there to Gracey Trestle & from there to Columbia & now up here. So you see I am still getting nearer home. I dont like it as well here as I did at Gracy's, perhaps I will like it better when I get acquainted around here. Sergt. S. B. Darrah is about 3 quarters of a mile from here at No. 13. corp. Wasson is only about 150 yards from here. He is right on the other side of Rutherford Creek at No. 11. Then there are a good many Nittany boys at No. 12 about a quarter of a mile from here, among the number, young Knights & Inhoof. I can't think of anything of interest to tell you.

The weather is clear & warm & has been quite wet for the week. Tell Dave I received 2 more letters from him the past week. I will answer them soon. You say Nancy Bridgens sent her respects & c. & would like to have my photograph. Perhaps you can get some more at Hopkins. I will send you the money as soon as I get paid. If you get a half dozen give her my respects. We have good time here this summer. We have not much duty to do at least I have not & lot of good things to eat. I would like to tell you something of interest but cannot think. The cars are just passing with some greyback on. What I like to see.

Your & c.

Jake Sigmund

Blockhouse No. 10

____ Sir,

Your most welcome letter of the 21st is received. I was pleased to hear from you once again. I don't know as I will be able to tell you much news, but still I am always willing to do the best I can. This is a beautiful Sabbath. The weather is clear & cool & very quiet around here. We are expecting an attack on the Rail Road. I received orders the other night to put my blockhouses in the best possible condition for defence. I have got all ready & have been looking for them for the past few days, but they have not made there appearance as yet. We are still busy getting out the timber for the double casing of the blockhouses. I expect to get through getting out the logs in a day or so. Then we will have to have them & put them up which will be quite a nice job. I dont know where we will be hear long enough to finish them or not. I should like to have been along after huckleberries. You appear to think that I doubt our word not at all. I believe every word of it. I suppose you have some exciting times on the draft & c. S. B. Darrah is well, also the rest of Company E in this vicinity. This I believe is the last Sunday in the month.

I have some sad news to tell you. I just heard from our regt. down front that they was pretty badly cut up. Capts. Thompson, Taylor & White are reported killed. Lieut. Hermans wounded. That is all I heard about it. If the officers suffered so much I suppose there was a good many men killed & wounded, but I have not heard any names. They was with Killpatrick on that raid. I understand they was surrounded & had to cut their way out. I hope it may turn out to be a false report. But I am afraid it is true. I suppose we will hear more about it in a few days. I suppose you heard of Robert Bridgens being killed. We have not been — as yet but expect to be in a week or so. I can' think of anything of importance to tell you so I guess I must bring my scribbling to a stop.

Very respectfully,
Your most obedient & c,

Jake Sigmund
Co. E, 7th P. V. Cav.

Give my best respects to Sallie & all inquiring

Dear Bro,

Sad sad indeed. I yesterday received the sad intelligence that my best friends, yes I mean to say the best men of Company E, which is saying a good deal that they are all among the missing and though to be killed. Sergt. Hays, Foster, Melzger and __ Caldwell I am told are among the missing. Dornblazer and Gladfelter wounded & others. I did not learn other names so you will see that surely ___ men of the company are among the missing. Saw ____ yesterday, he came from Chattagooga. He and __ McGee they were guarding some _____ men up there. Wheeler attacked them, captured some killed two. The rest excaped fite & McGhee among that number. They are both in Columbia. We are still looking for Wheeler. ___ shut up all the stores in Columbia and ______ and valuables to the front. I heard he had a fight at Murfreesboro. I thought last night he was coming, certain we could hear horses tramping and the dogs barks all ____ was up the most of the night but he did not make his appearance yet. I do not feel like writing and feel more like fighting. So I'll quit,

Jake

Block House No. 10
Oct. 25th 1864

Dear Sister Sallie,

I received a letter from you some time since & I believed I have not answered it yet. I will try and do so now but I don't know as I will be able to tell you much news, for news are scarce around here. We don't get any mail for the past week. I was up to Nashville last week to look around a little & see the sights & hear the news & get a few green back & c. We went up on Monday & came back on Thursday. Capt. Garrett & Lt. Rice went along. We had a fine time of it but suppose you know all about it.

I am still in the old place yet which I suppose you are aware of. I don't think I will get off front as they say the regiment is coming back to this place. They as on there way when Hood made his flank movement & the mounted men of the regiment were ordered back & I see by the papers they had several fights & licked the Rebbles badly. The dismounted men are at Chattanooga. I think they will be back here before long. I seen some of the boys of our regiment in Columbia yesterday. They came from Marietta, Geo. John Wolf of Co. E among the number. The train just passed here. I seen the Quarter Master of our Regt. (Ricketts) on the train. I suppose he will know all about them. I must go to town tomorrow & see.

The weather here is clear & cool and rather cold at nights. I see by your letter that Pap is not very well, which I am sorry to hear. But hope he may soon get better. I also see that you done a nig day work boiling apple butter & c. I am glad to see that you are still able to work but don't think it necessary to work so hard. Try to take it as easy as possible. That what I am trying to do. You say you wish the war was over. That is my fix exactly. It can't end to soon to suit me.

I see by your letter that the Copperheads had quite a big time in Lock Haven. But I am glad to hear that you think youans can beat them. I hope you may. S. B. Darrah & all the regt. of Co. E boys around here are well. Doe Stoner & the others of the recruits that came with him are all well. Isacc Shenker from Flemington came to our Block House yesterday evening to stay. He came all the way out here himself to join our regiment. I suppose you heard all about the Nixon affair. Or suppose you heard enough of it. It is something I don't care about saying much about. The least sayed the better. I have not heard anything from them since. Hope they may come out all right in the end. I can't think of anything of importance to write about. I have no easy times there time nothing to do & plenty to eat. So I guess I can get along. I will close hoping this may find you all well & enjoying yourselves.

Give — best respects to Father, Mother, ___ and all inquiring.
